NATIONAL COIN WEEK

National Coin Week is April 15-21. Franck Annunzio has introduced a bill in Congress to make it official and the ANA has appointed a committee to promote it under the motto "Numismatics, A Foundation for Friendship". Our own Winborne Springs is serving on the twelve member national committee.

You can do your part to make National Coin Week a success by exhibiting coins, giving talks, and submitting items of interest to local papers and radio or television stations.

MR. JIMMY GRAY ADDRESSES THE CHARLOTTE COIN CLUB

The Charlotte Coin Club reports that its January meeting was highlighted by an outstanding talk from Mr. Jimmy Gray. Mr. Gray discussed the Liberty Seated coinage and illustrated his talk with his complete collection of Liberty Seated half dimes, one of the best in the country.

The N.C.N.A. JOURNAL is the official publication of the North Carolina Numismatic Association an educational, non-profit organization dedicated to the advancement of the hobby of numismatics. It is published four times yearly in Raleigh, North Carolina.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

A few weeks ago I was reading the News and Observer and was amazed to read a couple of teenagers who worked and saved their money last summer and purchased baseball cards in the $100 (for one) plus range.

Possibly this does not interest you, but when have you witnessed such a numismatic purchase by any teenager? Take notice of the very few such young people in attendance at any show you frequent. Ask your favorite dealer if he sold one coin to one young collector, much less a high cost coin, or for that matter was he or she asked an "information question." More than likely his answer will be negative.

We have seventeen NCNA member or life member coin clubs out of one hundred counties in our great state — but we cannot seem to get any interested junior members. If you know of such a person a few well chosen words of encouragement could be turned into an enthusiastic numismatist.

Almost any numismatic publication you will read will have pictures or articles about junior exhibitors, speakers, or essay writers. Now truly doesn't this put us to shame? Now I would be the first to admit only about 25% of my desire to collect originally came from outside help, and the other 75% from sheer need to save past history and rarity, but if it were only one per cent, are we even giving this much of ourself?

Though our coinage of today cannot lay claim to history, let us not exclude rarity. Just to mention a few modern rarities that might not compare to the 1916-D winged liberty dime or the 1918/17-D or 1937-D three legged Indian head five cent piece there are coins that can be "found" such as the 1983 no P dime, 1983 no S proof dime, the 1983 triple reverse die one cent piece. The last incidentally at the price right now of $200+ should turn out to be a good find. Consider that the 1955 and 1972 doubled die cents started out at $5 and $125. How about the 1943/2 five cent piece selling for $800 or more if it has six full steps.

So we can easily see we do have encouraging news for the young collector and not the negative "you can't find anything of value in circulation any more."

If you are president of one of these seventeen coin clubs, do you encourage a youth program? If the answer is no, then why not? Don't leave it to the next president to possibly start such a program, for there is no better time than now.

While I am on the subject of coin clubs, is yours an NCNA member? Why not?

H. Fred Simpson, Jr. President

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The time has come to think ahead! I officially invite all NCNA members to submit nominations for NCNA offices for 1985. The offices to be filled are:

President
1st Vice President
2nd Vice President
Secretary-Treasurer
3 Directors

I also wish to call for nominations for the Jimmy Jackson, Jr. Award for an outstanding junior numismatist and the H. Fred Simpson, Jr. award for the outstanding numismatist in North Carolina and the Bason Literary Award presented for the best contribution to the NCNA JOURNAL.

H. Fred Simpson
President

Editor's Note

The current officers are listed on the inside of the front cover. The director seats that are up for election this year are those currently held by Ted Hendrick, Donald G. Sharpe, and D. Clarke White.

Nominations will be open until sixty days prior to the annual convention (to be held September 28-30), but nominations submitted by the first of June will have biographies presented in the Summer issue of the NCNA JOURNAL.

The Jimmy Jackson Award committee is chaired by David D. Porter and includes James Little and R.E. Southworth. The H. Fred Simpson Award committee is chaired by Don Sharpe and includes D. Clarke White and William J. Wright. Nominations may be sent to committee members or to the Association, P.O. Box 20653, Greensboro, NC 27420.

OUR FRONT COVER

The front cover of this issue of the NCNA JOURNAL is graced by the reverse of a 1943 walking liberty half dollar. This design by Adoph A. Weinman was introduced in 1916 and used until 1947. It is your editor's favorite of all the different eagles that have appeared on United States coins. It makes excellent use of the round field but is not crowded. The bird is bold and modern in style, yet it is a reasonably accurate depiction of the bird.

A QUARTER CENTURY OF NORTH CAROLINA NUMISMATICS

Autence Bason has brought it to our attention that April 11, 1984, shortly after you will receive this issue of the NCNA JOURNAL, will mark the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the organization that evolved to become the North Carolina Numismatic Association. On April 11, 1959 six numismatists including James Jackson, Baxter Bason, E.J. Stoker, and Charlie Robinson met at the Mayfair Cafeteria in Greensboro. Autence recalls that Jackson called the meeting; Jackson admits to being there but disclaims responsibility for starting the group. In any case, the group founded the North Carolina Coin Clubs Association, a statewide numismatic organization. James Jackson served as corresponding secretary, and Baxter Bason served as secretary.

Collectors who joined during the charter period and who have maintained their memberships for twenty-five years include:

Mrs. Autense Bason	Greensboro
J.W.B. Bason	Greensboro
Dr. J.D. Cockran, Jr	Newton
James R. Fuquay	Danville, VA
R. Moody Chaffin	Mocksville
Mrs. Margaret Heath	Clemmons
Ted H. Hendrick	Raleigh
James Jackson	Greensboro
Clifford Lopp	Lexington
Forrest Michael	Lexington
John J. Pittman	Rochester, NY
A.C. Schultz	High Point

We hope that we haven't missed anyone. If we have, please let us know.

The following clubs were charter members which have maintained their memberships:

Asheville Coin Club
Charlotte Coin Club
Eagle Coin Club of Lexington
Greensboro Coin Club
Raleigh Coin Club

Of the charter members, Baxter Bason, Ted Hendrick, and Forrest Michael have served as president and have served continuously in some office of the organization. James Jackson was also president and served on the Board of Directors continuously for twenty-two years. We salute you gentlemen who began our organization and guided it through so many years.

In 1972 the North Carolina Coin Clubs Association became simply the North Carolina Numismatic Association, the NCNA, which is looking forward to many more years of service to the numismatists of North Carolina.

LIBRARY PROJECT

At the October 1, 1983 meeting of the Board of Directors, President Simpson appointed David Porter chairman of the Library Committee with Richard Walker and Halbert Carmichael serving as members. The main function of this committee is to channel funds and books to libraries for the use of collectors all over the state. The Convention issue of the NCNA JOURNAL listed numismatic titles held by the Library of the State of North Carolina. The following titles have since been donated by the Greensboro Coin Club.

Karlson, Geneva. Library Catalogue of the American Numismatic Association, 1972 ed., Colorado Springs Co. American Numismatic Association

SIGN UP A NEW MEMBER TODAY

Use the attached membership application to do your part to help the North Carolina Numismatic Association by signing up a new member today.

On November 9, 1981 the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Numismatic Association set the following rates for dues for the different classifications of memberships.

At the same meeting the Board created a new membership classification: Joint Membership. This allows two members of the same household, either husband and wife or parent and child, to both be full members of NCNA at a reduced rate. Both would have full voting privileges, but only one copy of the NCNA JOURNAL will be mailed to the Joint Members.
